CONSIDER THIS

I've been thinking, lately, about the mission for which God has kept us on this planet. I mean, would it not have made sense for Him to have immediately raptured us out of here, the moment of our conversion? If you are anything like me, like, a human being, you can not even begin to count the sins and failures you have committed since the day you were "saved." Pretty much every Christian I know, or have ever heard about, would confess to this aggravating dilemma of being unable to live a perfect lifestyle. If that is not what we have been left here to do, what is it?

The short answer is that we are here to share the Gospel of Jesus Christ with family and friends, and support the effort to inform the people of the world, through missionary activities here and abroad. Specifically, we are to be witnesses of Jesus Christ, the only Savior of mankind in the world. Even though we are saved through faith in Him, we are not incapable of sinning. We are in the world, subject to the devices and temptations of the devil, but we are not of the world any longer. We have the Holy Spirit living in us, Who gives us power and authority to overcome those temptations. As we learn to trust in the Lord more and more, we will be able to withstand the attacks of the enemy more and more.

"There is only one Person who ever lived on the face of the earth who was qualified to live the Christian life, and He wants to live it IN you." We are still here to add our testimony of God's love to us, through Jesus Christ, to the millions who have come before us, believing in Him for Eternal Life when this present life is completed. This may be accomplished through the words we speak, but more often through the lives that we live. As we sin less and less, demonstrating the power of God over sin, we give encouragement to others that if they give their lives to Christ, He will do the same for them.

Life Chain

Thank you to those who attended the Life Chain event last Sunday, and those who continually pray and remind us of this heinous taking of human life in our Country and world.

THE PUZZLE PLACE

"Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language."
