CONSIDER THIS

Have you been working on YOUR "Song of Praise?" Last week we read some of the Songs of Praise which are recorded in the Scriptures. These songs were in response of the work of God on behalf of His child or children. These responses were often the spontaneous overflow of the heart of a believer who had experienced a wonderful or poignant move of kindness or deliverance from the direct hand of the Lord. These instances ranged from heart-changing to world-changing, on the lives of people whose lives were altered forever.

Each believer and follower of Jesus has had such a transforming experience upon his or her life. We have been changed from lost sinner to saved soul when we repented (changed our mind) from sin and embraced the Savior, Jesus Christ, which has produced an eternal result, and given us peace, joy, and purpose. Like the saints of old, we need to take time to compose the Song of Praise that expresses and defines what we think and feel about that experience.

There are others in this world who need to hear and be inspired by this Song which resonates in us. The multitudes need to hear what God can and will do for those who will turn, in faith, to Jesus Christ. Remember what Jesus said to those who complained about those praising Him, "... if these were silent, the very stones would cry out." Luke 19:40. Who will praise Him if we do not? Scripture says that the heavens declare the glory of God, and the firmament shows His handiwork. We will become a participant in the choir that is already singing His praise, when we unleash the praise that is being composed in us. We are just adding a new verse to the praise that is resounding through the galaxies of creation.
